General Conditions

TuscanyAll organizes and gives the tours described in this program under the administrative authorization of the Provincial Authority of Florence, no. 425 dated 24/01/1995. The program conforms to the text established according to the D.L. 111/95, approved by EEC regulation 90/314. The contract is governed by the law provisions no.1084 dated 27/12/1977, ratification and enactment of the International Convention relating to the Travel Contract (C.C.V.).

In case of cancellation, if the cancellation is communicated to TuscanyAll at least 9 days prior to the date of the tour, there will be no penalty charge applied. If the cancellation is made from 8 to 3 days prior to the date of the tour, the penalty charge will equal 10% of the gross total. For cancellations that are made less than 3 days prior to the date of the tour, the penalty charge is 100% of the price paid.

If for any reason TuscanyAll cancels the tour, the client has the right to full reimbursement of the amount they have paid. Further recompensation is forbidden.

No reimbursement will be made in the case of no-shows. Likewise, no reimbursement will be made if the client gets lost during the tour or does not take part in the entire tour.

During the high season, despite the time of reservation, museum entry could be subject to delays which TuscanyAll is not responsible for. When TuscanyAll is obliged to change the program due to operational difficulties or to reasons beyond the control of TuscanyAll (such as travel conditions, strikes, changes in opening hours, museum closures, delays or other) an alternative itinerary and/or visits to other museums will be proposed without variation to the established tariff. The client will be informed as early as possible prior to the tour departure.

In the case of any unexpected increase in prices exceeding 10%, the tariffs will be adjusted and clients will be notified in writing as early as possible prior to the tour departure.

TuscanyAll is not responsible for damages caused by third parties or by greater forces. Moreover, TuscanyAll is not responsible for objects that are lost or stolen from clients while on our tours.

Client complaints must be made to TuscanyAll in writing within and no later than 10 days after the date of the tour. These programs and the rates indicated are valid from 01 April 2010 to 31 October 2010.

Booking Variations

At its own discretion TuscanyAll can, at any time, modify the booking and substitute services with others of similar characteristics and qualities, in case it is necessary to do so for reasons that are beyond the control of TuscanyAll.

Insurance

Insurance covers on the basis of the following law and European Community directive: art.3 L.R 23 marzo 2000 n.42; Legge 27 dicembre 1977 n. 1084; Direttiva 90/314/C.E.E. Del 13 giugno 1990 and contracted between TUSCANYALL.COM SRL and LA PIEMONTESE ASSICURAZIONI SPA with head offices in Scandicci (FI), Civil Responsibility Insurance Policy no. 66/13039.

All disputes will be settled by the Tribunal of Florence.

Notice: TuscanyAll is not responsible for eventual closures or partial closures of the Vatican Museums. The Sistine Chapel and the interior of St. Peter's Basilica at times are closed on the occasion of certain religious holidays and private papal ceremonies.

Tuscany All.com is a Travel Agency authorized by the Florence Chamber of Commerce, registration number 05511100488, according to Italian and European law and deals. Its work is based on the experience of its founding members in the field of internet and tourism industries.
